BIKETRIAL CATALAN ASSOCIATION

Dear BikeTrial Friends,

I hope the Italian run of the European Cup had been successful. As an answer to this deep and interesting thought of our Mr. Musil, my board had been discussing about it in the same line of thoughts that we had been maintaining currently this year. In fact, BAC (BikeTrial Catalan Association) creation comes from these inquietudes; the only way we see possibilities to recover some of the best aspects from the past (nice groups going together from one point of Spain to different competitions, sometimes in a big Pullman coach paid by BUE) is to get official recognition so as to get money and coverage. Just that. We're quite sure that having money and organizing a coach to go to Italy this weekend a team of more than 12 riders could be there and enjoy the experience. Instead of that, just 2 Spanish riders went there (by their own with their own sponsors). We feel sorry for that. We try to go to a better situation and we think that each country/community has to think about which one is its better solution to get resources and to keep pushing our sport. And, when a solution is not enough... another have to come to play its role. Other opinions?

Sincerely,
Màrius Mollà & BUE Board
